	6.5.2003: Counsel for the petitioner is absent. No representation made. On 11.9.2000 none appeared before the Additional Registrar. Again on 29.9.2000 none appeared before him. Even on 18.10.2000 none appeared. On 3.12.2002 also none appeared for the petitioner before the Additional Registrar when the case posted. It is stated in the order sheet dated 3.12.2002 that despite giving several opportunities counsel for the petitioner did not deposit the security amount of Rs. 2000/-and thereafter the case has been fixed before the Court. We have perused the petition. The prayer in the petition is that election of Bhilai Nagar Palika Nigam, District Durg, which was held on 30.7.2000 may kindly be quashed and new election may be ordered to be conducted after completing all the formalities which this Court directs them who are responsible for conducting the elections. The period for which the election was conducted must have been over. The counsel for the petitioner has not deposited the security amount of Rs.2,000/- and he has failed to appear. It appears that the petitioner is not interested in prosecuting the petition. Therefore, the petition liable to be dismissed and it is accordingly dismissed.
